-- The Chicago Ambassador (Chicago), an online news magazine, seeks interns for reporting and photo journalism opportunities; applicants must have a skill for interviewing and for generating story ideas, as well as taking assignments. Interns will be doing real reporting, not making copies and fetching coffee. A passion for giving voice to the voiceless and a knowledge of Chicago is preferred. This is a great chance to do reporting for an outlet that has been routinely beating the big guys while building your clip file and receiving academic credit. Send writing samples, resume and a letter outlining why you're the best person for the internship to Bob Chiarito at robertchiarito@thechicagoambassador.com EOE (indef.)

-- Chicago-based documentary photographer/filmmaker Jon Lowenstein seeks apprentices for the fall, winter and summer terms who are interested and dedicated to documentary storytelling/transmedia/documentary filmmaking, is currently working on a documentary project and seeking mentorship, is interested in grant writing and how to sell ideas to funders, is interested in digital asset management and archiving, is interested in public arts programming, is interested in building and refining a portfolio but is not merely seeking to build a resume or learn skills; the apprenticeship requires a proactive investment on the part of the apprentice; Lowenstein specializes in unsparing clarity and likes to confront the realms of power/poverty/violence while demonstrating a lighted love of people and an intractable belief in the arts. Successful fall/winter candidates must be able to dedicate at least two days during the week over a six-month period and adhere to a regular schedule (applications due Aug. 15). The summer apprenticeship (deadline Jan.15) is a 300-hour opportunity geared toward international applicants/recent grads/candidates who have more schedule flexibility during the summer months; will be expected to scan and process digital images using Photoshop and lightroom, develop film, assist on photo and video production shoots, assist in printing archival prints for exhibitions and portfolios, research equipment/locations for pre-production/researching photo archive solutions, update social media and edit and work with multimedia content; experience and familiarity working with photography, multimedia storytelling and digital imaging programs preferred. A stipend can be made available to cover expenses for qualified candidates. Submit a link to your portfolio/work, resume, contact information for two references and a cover letter specifying which apprenticeship you seek and discussing your goals for the apprenticeship, to Phil@jonlowenstein.com. #### SMALL PRINT:

Founded Oct. 13, 1993, the Illinois News Broadcasters Association/Chicago Headline Club JobFile lists job openings and internships in print, online and broadcast journalism, public relations and journalism education, focusing on the Midwest. One need not be an INBA or Headline Club member to list or access openings, which are posted and made available free of charge to all. If you know of any openings you may e-mail them to Bob Roberts, WBBM/WCFS, at BoRoWMAQ@aol.com. All openings Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employers unless noted otherwise. Listings may be edited for brevity.

Send a cover letter unless the posting indicates otherwise, and assume that materials sent will NOT be returned. The date at the end of listings indicates the drop date, which may or may not be the same as the deadline. A dash following the drop date indicates it is a hard deadline.

Although once available via fax and phone line, JobFile is now available only via the Internet. Visit the JobFile on the Web at <http://www.inba.net> or <http://www.headlineclub.org>. Those interested can subscribe (and unsubscribe) to JobFile free of charge ONLY at the INBA site. One need not be an INBA member to access the subscribe/unsubscribe page. Please e-mail the editor on subscription issues only if you have a problem subscribing or unsubscribing. Even the Internet has its gremlins.

Please mention that you heard of the opening through the JobFile.
